

Advanced Writing

Prerequisite: None

Credit Hours: (2)

This course gives students the opportunity to perfect their writing skills and prepares them to write in disciplines with university-level accuracy. Students will develop vocabulary and grammatical structures appropriate to the academic assignments they are likely to encounter. This course helps to develop the writing skills necessary for analysis, written presentation of research topics and persuasive writing. Students may be working on writing scholarly papers, research proposals, and thesis projects.